

If the Sinclair Broadcasting Company decides to broadcast "Stolen Honor", doesn't that really step over the boundaries of "public interest" and jumps into "political use" of his television stations? And is that what free use of our airwaves is for? I don't think so.

Respectfully,

Terry Richards